

Four Freedom Rubric: Collaging 2014

Targets	1	2	3	4
Message Student can create a collage that presents a specific, powerful political message to the viewer.	Message does not present a specific, powerful message to the viewer.	Message begins to present a specific, powerful message to the viewer.	Message presents a powerful specific, message to the viewer.	Message presents a specific, powerful and lasting message to the viewer. Message influences the way political topic is viewed.
Artistic Potency Student can create a collage in which the chosen images, use of space, and colors contribute to the political message and appearance of the collage.	Chosen images, use of space, and colors do not contribute to the political message and appearance of the collage.	Chosen images, use of space, and colors begin to contribute to the political message and appearance of the collage.	Chosen images, use of space, and colors contribute to the political message and appearance of the collage.	Chosen images, use of space, and colors contribute and enhance the political message and appearance of the collage.
Artistic Variation Students can create a collage in which a variety of artistic techniques are used: contrast, multiple image sizes, foreground, background, direction of elements, and thoughtful use of space are incorporated.	Artistic techniques are not used. Contrast, multiple image sizes, foreground, background, direction of element, and thoughtful use of space are not incorporated.	Artistic techniques are beginning to be used. Contrast, multiple image sizes, foreground, background, direction of element and thoughtful use of space are beginning to be incorporated.	Artistic techniques are used. Contrast, multiple image sizes, foreground, background, direction of element, and thoughtful use of space are incorporated effectively.	Artistic techniques are used. Contrast, multiple image sizes, foreground, background, direction of elements and thoughtful use of space are incorporated effectively and increase the overall appeal of the collage and political message.

Name:

Sequence:

Date: